

We connect architects, developers, collectors and place makers with artists, managing all aspects of sculpture acquisition from conception, fabrication to installation.

At Sculpture Co. we are dedicated to the continued growth of the rich and diverse cultural fabric of our public and private spaces. Our team of passionate artists, fabricators, designers and curators share their wealth of knowledge and experience, delivering sculpture to the highest possible quality and standards.

We manage all elements of your project including:

- . Advice and consultation
- . Artist selection and liaising
- . Project management, including budget estimation
- . Sculpture fabrication across a broad range of materials
- . Delivery and installation

Through our collaborative approach with artists, we can ensure that your artwork will resonate with site and audience.

We Make It.

At Sculpture Co. we have an extensive history of fabricating sculptures for artists.

We have delivered small scale exhibition sculptures through to monumental works across a broad range of materials.

We specialise in fabrication of sculpture in:

- . Lost wax and sand casting in bronze and other metals
- . Steel fabrication, including high finish stainless steel
- . Polymers, resin and fibreglass
- . 2-Pac automotive finishes and powder coating
- . 3D Scanning and CNC milling
- . Scaling up works from maquettes
- . New technologies and experimental materials

Whether you are looking for an editioned sculpture, or a unique site-specific artwork, the team at Sculpture Co. can manage your project.

A team of skilled creatives that love to problem solve.

The team at Sculpture Co. share a strong history of art curation and development of private and public collections. We have successfully collaborated with national and international artists, facilitated and fabricated their major art projects across a broad range of materials and scales.

If your project requires a sculpture that is site-specific, we can manage all elements of the commissioning process, including supporting your tender proposals with concepts and ideas.

At Sculpture Co. we have in stock an exclusive range of limited edition sculptures available for immediate purchase, by some of Australia's most highly respected artists.

Contact us to discuss your sculpture requirements, arrange a viewing of available works, or make an appointment for a tour of our foundry and manufacturing facilities.
